ClearPath Action Applauds McMorris Rodgers for being Announced as Republican Leader of House Energy and Commerce Committee

Washington, DC – Wednesday, December 2, 2020 – ClearPath Action Executive Director Rich Powell congratulates Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers (R-WA) after being announced as the next Republican Leader of the House Energy and Commerce Committee, and the first female to hold this position.

“Congresswoman McMorris Rodgers has long been a champion for accelerating clean energy innovation through free-market solutions, and we’re excited to continue working with her in this new prestigious role,” said Rich Powell, Executive Director of ClearPath Action.

“Congresswoman McMorris Rodgers has been one of the strongest leaders in Congress for hydropower as a source of clean energy for her district and is a tremendous advocate for advanced nuclear, storage, carbon capture and other clean energy technologies that will help solve the climate challenge.”
